DODDRIDGE COUNTY.

The Democratic Convention — Wrangle Over a Resolution to WEST UNION, W. VA. July 25.

There assembled at th to-day, under a call of the Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, what will no doubt be reported as a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of this county, to appoint delegates to the Congressional Convention to be held at New Martinsville; also delegates to a Sentorial Judicial Convention.

The bell was rung but they came not; again the bell was rung lond and long, and finally there came eight of the faithful, who reside in the county outside faithful, who reside in the county outside of West Ucion.

The Convention was called to order by the Chairman—organized and proceeded to business. All went merry as a "marriage belf" until one of the faithful offered a resolution in substance as follows:

Resolved, That we recognize in Hos Col., Wilson a true and faithful representative, and that his views on the financial and other important questions are in accordance with the views of a large majority of the citizens of our county, and that, notwithstanding the attacks of the Parkersburg Senhad and some Republican papers on him, we heartily recommend him to the voters of this District for re-election.

This was a bombshell in the camp, and Parkersburg Seemas and some Acquaire can papers on him, we heartily recommend him to the voters of this District for re-election.

This was a bombshell in the camp, and brought out heated debate.

The exclienced was intense for a while, the opposition claimed that they would go to the Convention untrammeled, and that this resolution amounted to an instruction; that they could not possibly role for tool. Ben; and, again, that only four out of aix districts in the county were represented. Hefue they could not consistently pass resolutions representing the county, do., do.

This brought out the old veterans who said they saw that semething was to be done, for the dear Colonel was in danger. To say they plead for their dear old friend helt himly expresses their stream appeals. But the opposition would not hear them. However the resolution was finally passed by a vote of eleven to six. Your correspondent heard some very blitter expressions from several Democrate denouncing Wilson, saying he spent too much time getting up buncombe resolutions and pointing out the evils of Radical misrule, but failing to point out a remedy. When the Colonel counts on Doddridgs as solid for him he will be badly mistaken. "All is not gold that glitters."
